21st ANNUAL SUMMIT CALL FOR PROPOSALS

GCADA seeks proposals for its 21st Annual Summit from a diverse group of experienced professionals on topics related to substance abuse prevention, early intervention, treatment, and recovery support. Presentations should include national perspectives, innovative practices, and emerging trends that offer a collaborative spirit and advocacy-driven efforts. Integration of topics that support a coordinated system of care is encouraged.

Summit Information

The 21st Annual Summit is a free conference to be held on September 12, 2012 at the Hyatt Regency in New Brunswick. This year's theme is "Creating Healthy and Safe Communities". The Summit seeks to educate over 800 professionals, stakeholders, and community members from across the State of New Jersey in the areas of prevention, early intervention, treatment and recovery support.

The workshops will take place in two 60-minute blocks. There will be one morning and one afternoon session. Both sessions will receive the same content.

Proposal Guidelines

Proposals must include:

- Completed Application Form (See Attached)
- Narrative: Detailed content description of the presentation must be included (may not exceed one page). Content description must detail how the presentation will impact or train to change attitudes, behaviors and/or skills. Outcomes must also be indicated.
- Resume: Please make sure your resume highlights your training experience including any workshops or presentations you have facilitated within the past two years, including where you presented and the topics covered. You may include letters of reference, articles, anecdotal accounts, and other documents that further illustrate the accomplishments of your work.

Due Date

All proposals must be received by GCADA before July 1, 2012. Please fax your proposal to Rebecca Alfaro at GCADA at (609) 777-0535 or scan and email to: rebecca.alfaro@treas.state.nj.us.

Contact for Further Information

For additional information about this call for proposals, please contact Rebecca Alfaro at (609) 777-0526.
